Their loss on the building, still machinery and stock, was $750,000; insured for $271,000. In New York, Cincinnati, St. Louis, New Orleans and the Liverpool and London Companies. The fire extended to Nos. 43 and 45 Broadway, owned by John Machine Works. Loss on building and machinery $10,000. The walls of Kuhn & Co., on the corner of Third and Broadway, were damaged to the amount of $10,000; Delmonico's Exchange and J. F. Ehrlich, clothing, damaged to the amount of $10,000. Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, was badly injured in the head by a falling wall. Boyle, Miller, & Co. were the largest producers of Bourbon whisky in the country.

SUMMARY OF NEW YORK NEWS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.
A special from New Orleans, of the 26th, says that the steamer Pequena, on the lower bay, was captured by the rebels below Bayou Mancha, threatening to overtake the lands and submerge the country to Lake Pontchartrain, and the Jackson Railroad. A large force had been placed upon the latter break to repair the damage and prevent further destruction of property.
General Hancock has telegraphed for authority to place negroes at work on the levee generally, and issue to them the levee general order.

Accounts from parishes in the interior state that negro depredations continue. Large military force is needed to prevent a rising of the negroes.

The military forces have quietly disbanded large assemblies of armed negroes at Jackson and other points.

Advices from Texas state that Indian depredations continue on the frontier, notwithstanding General Cook's disposition of troops.

The President of a Boston bank received the following letter:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24, 1867.
MY DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 21st inst. is received. There is a good deal of difference of opinion among the members of Congress in regard to what shall hereafter be our financial policy. At the commencement of the session it seemed that the majority were in favor of a policy before the adjournment for the holidays, a more conservative spirit was manifested, and I am quite confident that no legislation by the present Congress favorable to the views of Gen. Butler, which are very adverse to those of the Secretary, will be enacted.

With thanks for the uniform support which I have received from your hands, I remain very truly yours,
(Signed) H. McCulloch.

A Rio letter of Nov. 24th, to the Boston Traveller, contains the following: "This morning a Brazilian steamer has arrived from Montevideo bringing news of the loss of the Empress, a steamer of the line, in the terrible gale off that place a week ago. She had on board four hundred persons, including crew and passengers. Among the passengers was the English Minister who had just been relieved to enable him to take a short visit home. He, however, was not on board. Only fourteen persons were saved.

The Washington special says that the Executive Mansion and the residence of the Cabinet Ministers are under guard. The fax will be opened to visitors on New Year's Day.

Mr. Colfax will inaugurate his usual reception during the Congressional session on January 17th.

The Board of Officers for the revision of the army regulations, composed of Generals Sherman, Sheridan, and Angur, will meet for some days, in consequence of the absence of General Sherman.

Commissioner Rollins invites designs for Internal Revenue stamps or plans for the cancellation to be submitted for examination before the first of January. A view to their adoption if found satisfactory and efficient.

Gen. Sherman arrived yesterday from New York, with his daughter, Millie, and today had an interview with the President, General Grant, and Secretary McCulloch.

The President has not decided who it is to be Gen. Pope's successor, but it is said the position has been offered to Gen. Sherman.

The Second Auditor, Mr. French, estimates that it will cost about twelve months to investigate and make a quarter of a million bounty and other claims on his department.

The receipts for postage for the week ending the 21st inst. were $1,523,306.

The choice for President of the Convention to be held at Chicago, was made by G. Mackey, Collector of Charleston.

The prospective nominee for Governor is Judge Wooding, former District Tax Commissioner.

The federal Gen. Griffin will take place here to-morrow. The body will be taken to Oakville, near Georgetown, for interview, accompanied by a full military escort.

An official order from the War Department states that the Hon. Charles Eastman, Capt. Hester, Harker, Humphrey, Hawley, and Augur will be paid hereafter.

Atlantic Cable Telegrams.

LONDON, Dec. 27.

Another of those fendish outrages which characterized the operations of the Fenian Brotherhood, has been reported at Dublin. Telegrams from there have been received to-day giving the following particulars:

An unusually large number of letters have recently been received at the post-office at Dublin, directed to prominent of persons, each of these letters was loaded with explosive material, designed to kill the persons addressed. Several exploded before their real nature was discovered, but up to this time no person has been killed. A policeman who received one of these letters was horribly mangled by its explosion.

Many of these missives have been dispatched. Considerable excitement prevails both in Dublin and elsewhere throughout the country, on their discovery of this, the latest Fenian outrage. The authorities are actively investigating, and will no doubt probe the matter to the bottom.

The Times has an editorial article on the Fenian question, in which it says that no less than 30,000 special constables have been sworn in and are now serving in London. The writer calls the Fenian rebels on the provincial cities and towns to emulate the precautionary measures of the metropolis.

Detailed accounts of the successes of Dickens' readings in Boston and New York were received here by mail and published and commented upon by the London Journal. The Times says that the Americans for their magnanimity in giving Dickens such a hearty reception.

LOUISVILLE CITY COURT.

HOS. J. HOPKINS ON THE BENCH.

The Police Court had a short horse, curdy yesterday morning, and, of course, they did it quickly. The old jade has been so much pampered for a few days that he is quite sick now and doesn't need much attention. Seven knots on his back, and he was down at the rate of $3 each for the benefit of the Public Schools.

Ed. Blankenbush, for drunkenness and abuse of his family, was fined $3 and held in bonds of $500 to keep the peace for the space of three months. He was also arraigned on a charge of stealing hay from W. K. Thomas, but was discharged.

The case of Henry Heineg and Roll F. Woodward, for passing a counterfeit bill, was set for to-morrow.

John G. Scherzer accused of maliciously shooting and wounding Wm. Knoeks, was discharged.

John Fahay, maliciously knocking and wounding his wife, continued till Saturday.

General Baker, alias Selt, stealing two pairs of shoes from Buckle & Becker, continued till Monday.

MATRIMONY UNDER DIFFICULTIES.
A COUPLE HENT ON BEING "TIED" CHAINED ALL ABOUT BY AN EMBARRASSED PARTY.

Day before yesterday Mr. S. D. Schell and Miss Mattie Sampson, of Jacobsville, Ky., arrived in this city, accompanied by another gentleman and lady, and stopped at the Schell House for the purpose of being married, but before the holy knot could be tied Miss Sampson's father appeared upon the scene and the ceremony was stopped.

The couple, however, escaped to the city, and were there when they were about to consummate their wedding, when the old man popped in and again stopped the proceedings. They then fled to New Albany, where they succeeded in eluding their pursuers' vigilance and were married, after which they returned to the Schell House and left again on the 4:30 Jeffersonville train yesterday for Louisville, Indiana. At last accounts the irate old gentleman was still waiting and watching for them in the little city below the falls.

OUR GAMBLING HELL.

DEALING IN DIAMONDS.

THE EXPERIENCE OF ONE WHO WAS NOT A GAMBLER, BUT A VICTIM OF THE GAMBLING TRAP.

The annals of crime in this great city reveal many curious facts, explain some mysterious operations, and show in what danger the wisest and best-informed citizens are of falling into the hands of the victims of fraud and misplaced confidence. It is often wondered at that people residing in the country, who are being continually deceived by the wiles of the gamblers, do not counter on visiting the metropolis, do, after all, fail to take heed, and in some way succeed in being deceived in the most amazingly easy manner. It is still more wonderful that a man well versed in all the tricks and traps of New York, and who has been such as to enable him to fully inform himself as to the operations of fraudulent persons, should be so easily deceived by the wiles of the gamblers.

Resolved, that in the opinion of the city, the growth of vice and debauchery in the city of Louisville, demands the serious attention of the lawgivers, and that the city should be wiser, and that its youth of both sexes are endangered, there are undoubtedly some of the city fathers who are in favor of legislation, though there are many others who are not.
